

Tuition Information (Spring 2025)

- Tuition and fees must be paid by the due date listed on the electronic statement.
- The cost per credit for graduate courses is $1,020 as of Spring 2025.
- Late fees are charged for unpaid balances, calculated as 2% of billed charges or $100, whichever is lower.
- Scholarship recipients should pay their tuition bill, deducting the $1,000.00 award, before the deadline to avoid late fees.
- Spring tuition bills post on August 10th and are due on September 1st.
- For help with billing or accounts, contact Student Accounts at Student.Accounts@unh.edu

Learn more at: <https://www.unh.edu/business-services/tuition-fees/unh-manchester-graduate-school>

Free food may be available at certain campus events, orientations, or student organization meetings.

- ☞ Check with the Student Involvement Office or campus event calendars for any upcoming events offering free food.

- ☞ Some local community organizations or food banks may provide free food assistance.

- ☞ UNH Manchester has a pantry that offers free food assistance to students in need.

- ☞ For more specific information or resources, feel free to ask for further assistance.